

IMF RAW Code of Conduct

Being a Run Leader, runner and/or walker within the IMF RAW family of more than 2,500 people around Australia means that I acknowledge and understand that:

- My participation is advancing the health and wellbeing of Indigenous Australians
- My IMF RAW Group is no better, nor is it inferior, to any other IMF RAW Groups across Australia
- I understand that we are all equal and we are all in this together
- I always uphold strong personal and social values when participating in the IMF RAW program, whether that be as a Run Leader, a runner, or a walker
- IMF RAW is a safe place for everyone
- No negative or defamatory behaviours will be tolerated in any IMF RAW Group or any online spaces facilitated directly or indirectly through IMF RAW
- If I act in a manner unworthy of my, or my IMF RAW Groups own dignity, I will be asked to leave the IMF RAW Community
- IMF RAW is an inclusive environment and even though IMF RAW Australia's target audience is primarily Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander men, women and children, IMF RAW is also open to Non-Indigenous participation
 - o I do understand however, that to be selected to represent my community at the National IMF RAW Championships, I must be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent
- I will use my platform through IMF RAW to better me and my community's lifestyle through running and walking
- I am required to always act in a manner worthy of the Indigenous Marathon Foundation and my Communities own dignity while participating as a runner and/or walker or Run Leader within the IMF RAW program
- I will not use the IMF RAW program as a vehicle to promote my or anyone else's business initiatives without prior approval from the IMF
- I will not use any of the IMF's intellectual property including logos, imagery or use of terms in any commercial sense without first seeking approval from the IMF
- I understand that IMF requires the collection of participation data for reporting purposes
- I acknowledge that IMF events and activities that are always free and inclusive and will always act in a safe and respectful way towards others whilst participating in these events and activities
- It is critical that all the IMF RAW community adhere to the above values, principles, and ways of operating at all times and throughout the course of delivery and attendance as part of IMF RAW program

All new Run Leaders must complete the New Run Leader Personal Information form, which acknowledges and accepts the terms of this IMF RAW Code of Conduct.

All runners and walkers who participate in IMF RAW events and activities must complete a New Member Details form, which acknowledges and accepts the terms of this IMF RAW Code of Conduct.
